Dear AECVP Members,

Due to COVID-19 pandemia we are facing to very difficult times in many countries all over the world.

9th Biennial Meeting of the AECVP – 16th-18th September 2021

We have had to reschedule the 9th Biennial Meeting of our Association from September 2020 to 16th-18th September 2021. It will still be held in Cambridge, UK, at the same venue, Fitzwilliam College, and the meeting still promises an interesting and varied program.

As we get nearer to the meeting, we will provide more detail about the program, registration, and information about how to get to Cambridge. This information will be put on the Association's website, and major announcements will be made by email to members and in newsletters. We will also put updates on the meeting's Twitter feed, @AECVPCam2021.

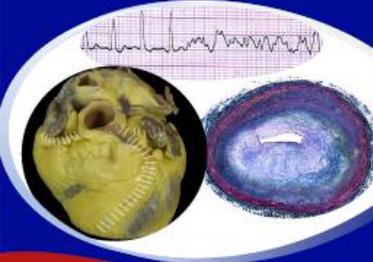

We look forward to meeting you in Cambridge in 2021.

As a result of the non-availability of the Scottish Event Campus, the joint XXXIII Congress of the International Academy of Pathology and 32nd Congress of the European Society of Pathology scheduled for Glasgow for 5 to 9 December 2020 will now be delivered as a virtual event including also our previously announced cardiovascular pathology sessions. Accordingly, this year business meeting will be held virtually. More information will follow in September.

As a consequence of the corona pandemic, this year the European Congress on Cardiology goes on line. An official joint session ESC/AECVP will be held August 31st on the topic "Sudden Death in Relation to Sport and the Impact of Toxicology". Speakers: Cristina Basso, Joaquin Lucena and Jacob Tfelt-Hansen. The program will be available ONLINE from Saturday 29 August until Tuesday 1 September. Pre-registration is required via the ESC website (<https://www.escardio.org/Congresses-&-Events/ESC-Congress>), but Registration is FREE of Charge.

Autopsy in Adults With Congenital Heart Disease (ACHD) AECVP position paper led by Prof. Annalisa Angelini has been published in Virchows Arch and available as open access (<https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/32266476/>)

Last, but not least, AECVP is very proud to announce that our member and councilor Prof. Cristina Basso received the HRS 2020 Douglas Zipes Lectureship Award, recognizing an individual who has made a significant and unique contribution to the field of cardiac pacing and electrophysiology as a basic scientist. Her lecture is available at youtube: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2p_6jt52WSw&feature=share&fbclid=IwAR0RB1U8sZyWLR_eR6KaSHaCPcZJ59b7vH9M4mu88JID5vZYBs46GWfq8Xw Sincere Congratulations!

AECVP Board sends a message of support to all AECVP members in these difficult times. Hopefully you, your family and beloved ones are on safe side. Stay healthy and enjoy your summer holidays.
